Thank you to the Neighborhood Association ladies for planning a wonderful Fall Festival on October 17th. This year the association moved the Fall Festival back to the intersection of Heady Avenue and Taggart Road. This provided a more intimate setting for neighbors to connect and socialize with one another. The food was provided by the Neighborhood Association by Bootleg Barbecue. The Bourbonautes provided great music that even had some residents up dancing! Three residents won $100 Gift Certificates to Super Chefs Restaurant!

The Neighborhood Association planning team included Angie McDermott, Leslie Koenig, Sarah Segree, Felicia Rogers, Amanda DeMoss, Heather Montgomery, Ashley Coleman, Jennifer Schmidt and Maria Hawkins.

Anyone who is interested in the Planning Committee for next year's Fall Festival is welcome. Contact Angie McDermott at amcdermott@bellsouth.net.

Congratulations Two New Commissioners

On November 3rd, 2015, Commissioner Steve Wilkerson and Commissioner Joe Meyn were officially elected to their positions in the City of Richlawn.

Congratulations to Steve and Joe!

Resident Spotlight: Annette Childers and Kathy Krlevich

Annette Childers and Kathy Krlevich are sisters who live together in their charming Richlawn home off Hubbards Lane. They welcomed me inside and gave me a tour of the home that their parents originally purchased. The sisters then inherited it from their parents after their death. Annette and Kathy moved into their home together after Annette's husband died in 1962.

They claim to fight some but have developed a nice relationship of shared responsibilities. They cook, garden, bake and do crafts together. In fact, the pair attempts all of their own house work and repairs, except roofing. They recently painted the alcove in the front of their home and replaced the outdoor carpet that welcomes visitors. These two residents of Richlawn are a wonderful example of the type of neighbors we are blessed to have in our fair city.

I feel honored to have met this lively pair and I hope you will introduce yourselves the next time you spot them working in the yard or walking around the neighborhood!

If you would like to nominate someone to be featured on the next Richlawn Spotlight, please contact Sarah Segree at sarahsegree@cityofrichlawn.com.
